

Curriculum 2012

The curriculum is given in sequence over approximately 4 years. The academic year is comprised of three terms from September through June.

Each teaching session lasts for approximately 90 minutes; generally there are two sessions in succession (e.g. 2:00 to 3:25 p.m. and 3:35 to 5:00 p.m.) per week.

The curriculum is under constant evaluation and revision. A current picture is as follows.

Didactic #1	Didactic #2	Clinical case conference
a. Process and Technique I and II b. Freud's Theoretical Papers	Infant Observation (entire year)	With a focus on ethics and conversion of cases from psychotherapy to analysis
a. Freud's Theoretical Papers b. Klein I and II	a. Dreams b. Child Psychoanalysis c. Adolescence, Development and Gender	Clinical case conference
a. Trauma and Narcissistic Pathology I and II b. North American School	a. Middle School b. Bion I c. Meltzer	Clinical case conference
a. Intro to Contemporary British Object Relations Writings b. Bion II d. Intro to French School	a. Neurosis/Freud's Papers on Psychopathology a. Borderline/Psychotic/Trauma b. Psychosomatic/Perversion/Trauma	Clinical case conference (Until graduation) with a focus on process and technique